VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT EUROPEAN COMMISSION PHASE II REVIEW

MMG Limited (the Company or MMG) refers to its announcement dated 18 February 2025 regarding the conditional acquisition of the Anglo-American nickel business in Brazil (the Acquisition).

The obligations of the Company and Anglo-American to consummate the Acquisition are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions precedent (Conditions) including: merger control clearance in several jurisdictions; the acceptance of a filing with National Development and Reform Commission (NDRC), The People's Republic of China (PRC) and the acceptance of a filing with Ministry of Commerce, PRC (MOFCOM).

Whereas all other Conditions have been satisfied, the European Commission has announced today that it will move to a Phase II merger investigation of the Acquisition. The Phase II is a detailed review of information to enable the European Commission to be satisfied that there are no substantive anti-competitive concerns with the Acquisition.

MMG will continue to work with Anglo-American and the European Commission to assist the European Commission in its review.
